AIMS OF OUR SOCIETY

Fostering interest, knowledge an enjoyment in natural history, particularly in the Dubbo region.*

 To speak out on environmental and conservation issues, particularly those affecting our area.*

 To achieve these aims through meetings with lectures, discussions and field trips.*

“The Dubbo Region - A Natural History” This well illustrated book was produced by the Dubbo Field Naturalists in 1984, and is a must for anyone wishing to better understand the Dubbo regions’ flora and fauna, geology and natural history. Due to demand the book is now sold-out however copies are accessible at Dubbo Regional and Community Libraries.

“Field Notes” is the societies’ Newsletter which helps to keep members updated on current & special events including guest speakers and field trip venues, campouts and other information on a wide variety of subjects. Also see our annual Calendar of Events.

“Bird Routes of the Dubbo District” is an invaluable self-touring guide for keen bird observers. Produced by a dedicated field nat, the brochure is available at Dubbo Visitors Centre.
